A Page of Original Humor and Columns of Special Stories and Miscellany.

Mr. Parnell Interviewed. SEE THE SUNDAY WORLD.

The Great Irish Nationalist Lender Freely Ex-presses His Views to T. P. O'Connor, M. P., Special Commissioner of The World.

THE FIRST AUTHORIZED INTERVIEW WITH MR. PARNELL IN YEARS.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

2 O'CLOCK.

English Dupes Want to Arrest the Sugar Swindlers.

Jerry, the Conspirator's Watchman, Disappears This Morning.

Investors Would Like to Know Where All the Money Went.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.] LIVERPOOL, Jan. 5. - Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Mrs. Friend and her stepfather, W. E. Howard.

The great swindle is still the uppermost theme on 'Change.

There is but one topic in Wall street, the Stock Exchange and the sugar market to-day. It is the revelations in the affairs of the Electric Sugar - Refining Company which tory said : has been operating in the mill of the old Atlantic Flour Milling Company in Brooklyn by which stock that had been booming along at $450 a share has dropped to something less than nothing.

EXTERIOR OF THE "ELECTRIC" BEFINERY. (Which is about all the stockholders ever saw.) It is the general belief that all has not yet been told. Are there others than Mrs. Friend, W. O. and Gus and George Halstead responsible for for the development of a process for refining He was unsuccessful, but in 1884 J. U. Rob-ertson and William H. Cotterill, Englishmen and a Mr. Woodworth, of this city, organized tric Sugar-Refining Company" and opened offices in this city.

The capital stock was to be $1,000,000 in 10,000 shares at $100 each, the Company to use the invention of Prof. Friend.

For this Friend received 6,000 shares and Woodworth was elected President and Robertson Secretary and Treasurer at salaries of $30 a week each. Woodworth Cotterill was selected as President. Woodworth died and FRIEND KEPT HIS SECRET. But Friend retained the secret of his invention on the ground that it was not yet quite perfected. He was to reveal it when the stock was all subscribed. The building of the old Atlantic Flour

The building of the old Atlantic Flour Milling Company, in Brooklyn, was leased and operations were begun in the mill. Friend had for his assistants his wife, her stepfather. W. O. Howard; Mrs. Howard, Gus and George Halstead. ALLEGED TO BE BELATIVES. To maintain secrecy, burglar-proof laboratories were built on the two upper floors, and here the work was done, the "company" and people who were investigat-ing the affair as an investment only seeing the results of the work in beautiful white sugar, which was delivered to them on a lower floor through chutes connecting with the laboratory.

Jerry Flanagan, a stalwart young Irishman, was installed as watchman, and no one but the electrical experts were dimitted. Friend died March 10 last, and his widow claimed to have received his secret from him and continued the work till a week ago, when the and her assistants all disappeared.

They went to their former home in Milan, lich., and, according to Mr. Robertson, Mich., and, according to Mr. Robertson, Messrs. Catterill and Robertson opened negotiations with them. offering $\sigma_{10}$ to cold cash for the secret. But there was a hitch, and then Mrs. Cotterill and Robertson say that they repaired to the mill and forced their way into the laboratories.

way into the laboratories.

There they found that sacks of raw sugar which had been sent up to the secret room were there still unopened, and that boxes and barrels, supposed to have contained nucleinery secretly made, had paid $180,000. for which the company had paid $180,000, really contained refined sugar in the lost. Instead of refining the raw suyar by this electric process the electricians had only run lost sugar through a graduator and thence down through the chutes to their guliable

THE ALLEGED REFINERY.

The electric sugar refining factory is not numbered, but it is situated on Hamilton avenue right near the ferry. It is a six story building and has a frontage of 100 feet on the

At first sight it seemed to be all windows in front, but there are mone in the sides of in held, which lasted until 2 o'clock this morn-the rear.

James D. Fish owned it when the Marine inc., and every mention of annexation was Bank smashed. At that time it was occupied cheered to the echo.

by the Atlantic Flour Mills. Three years ago the sugar combination rented it. People in the vicinity say they paid a rental of $1,000 a month for it.

LOCKED TIGHT AS A DRUM. When an Eventso WonLD young man went to the place to-day, it was locked tight, and there was no sign of life about the place. Curious people stopped to look at it on their way to New York, but found little to their way to New York, Dit found into to encourage their curiosity.

A loud-sounding bell was pulled half a dozen times before any response came from within. Then two men, one tall and dark, the other short, fat and light-complexioned, came to the door.

They opened it partly and the little man asked:

"What go you want?"

"I am a reporter for THE EVENING WORLD and would like to inspect this building."

BY ROBERTSON AND COTTERILL'S ORDERS. "Well, you cannot do so. No one is allowed in here, by order of Messrs. Robert-sen and Cotterill," returned the man on the inside.

... Who are you?" the reporter then inquired, to which the little fellow answered quired, to which the little fellow answered pleasantly;

"My name is Tom Ford. I was hired by Mr. Robertson to come here and guard these premises from this morning, and have strict orders to allow no one to enter here."
"Where is Jerry Flanagan?" (the watchman and alleged accomplice of the alleged refiners) he was asked.
The dark man then turned away uneasily, while Ford said: "Oh, he has gone."
"Gone where?"

JERRY IS OUT OF THE WAY. "I don't know. Mr. Robertson and young Mr. Cotterill were here this morning and let him go. His wife and children are still here.

Mr. Cotterill were here this morning and let him go. His wife and children are still here, but will move out to-day," he concluded.

A gentleman who saw Mr. Cotteril and Mr. Robertson this morning told the reporter that they were over there very early and looked to be pretty badly broken up.

They said they had nothing further to disclose about the matter, and nothing to add to the story as told in The Evening World Extra last night.

the story as too Extra last night. In every saloon in the neighborhood, and in every other objec in that neighborhood, in fact, nothing but the gigantic swindle was being discussed this morning. A saloon keeper almost adjoining the factory said:

That joint has often kept me awake nights, and I was going to complain of them once, for every time they started their blamed old machinery it shook my place so that I thought it would fall in.

They never started the machinery only in the night time.

LIVELY AND HARD DRINKERS.

"They were a lively crowd, too, and all good, hard drinkers. Friend was the boss in that respect, too. Liquor killed him.

"He was an extravagant man, who loved wine, women, horses and a good time generally. The whole gang used to come here once in awhile, and then I did an extra good day's business. day's business.

day's business.

"One of the women was very pretty. I don't know whether her name was Friend or Howard though, Semetimes there were eight or ten in the party." he concluded.

A gentleman connected with the Atlantic Sugar Company nearby told the reporter several interesting anecdotes concerning the electric sugar refiners.

MASTER MECHANIC SNIFFEN. "I never believed in their scheme," he said: "but an old fellow named Sniffen, a builder, who drew the plans for Tammany Hall and other big buildings in New York, was the master mechanic employed there, His brother was a big gun in Tammany Hall before he died.
"Will Sniffen used to come in here and it Will Sniffen used to come in here, and it was as good as a theatre to hear him talk about Friend. He never found out any more than the Professor wanted him to know, though. I guess he has been ruined by the scheme, for he used to tell us that he had every dollar he was worth invested in the "Where do you suppose they obtained the

Are there others than Airs, Friend, w. O.

Howard and his wife, her father and mother, and Gus and George Halstead responsible for stockholders?" asked the reporter. SUGAR, NOT MACHINERY, IN THE BOXES, the swindle? is the question asked on all sides to-day.

Ten years ago "Prof." Henry Friend, claiming to be a New York electrician, appeared in Liverpool asking for financial aid peculiarly constructed to represent cases of machinery, and in these they would ship the refined signs here. Continuing, he said :

A WEIRD EXCUSE.

"They always had some excuse for not beginning a tive operations. The last one was very funny. I was present at a meeting of some of the stockholders, when the question came up as to why the works were not started. A gray-haired old gentleman, with a great show of secresy, returned, 'Mrs. Friend is sick now, but as soon as she gets over her trouble, the factory will be started in full blast.' They swallowed even that.

TWO BARRELS FOR ONE.

"That they were swindlers was only too palpable to some people," continued The Evening World's informant. "A friend of mine in New York sent them a barrel of raw material to be refined. They sent him back nearly two barrels refined. Of course he smelled a mice and had nothing more to do with them.

with them. $1,000,000 FOR THE SECRET. "Again Havemeyer, when Friend first approached him, offered him $1,000,000 to let him see how the thing was done. When Freind refused to do so Havemeyer would have nothing more to do with him."

"When did Howard and the women clear out?"

Only a few days ago. They went very quietly and were away before we knew it around here. I did not suspect the worst then, but I would not have been very much much surprised to see the old building in flames almost any time lately."
Other people had stories to tell of an engineer who want to work in the almost any learners.

Other people had stories to tell of an engineer who wout to work in the place, and, being too inquisitive, was laid off. He had a contract for a year, however, and during that time drew his salary of $25 a week regularly. Of another young man who invested his fortune of $1,300 and then got sorry and would have sold his stock for $1.000 until one lucky day it wint up again, and he sold out for $2,000, a gain of $500.

Last night there was the greatest excite.

Last night there was the greatest excitement about the place, and it required the united exertions of a big fat policeman and Jerry, too, to keep the sidewalk in front of the place clear.

ANNEXATION CHEERED BY CANADIANS.

The Mayoralty Contest in Windsor, Ont., Is Being Fought on This Issue. IMPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. 1

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 5. - The Mayoralty contest in Windsor, Ont., just across the river from here, is the hottest over known in the history of the town and is being fought out on the line of annexation, between the Hon. Sol White, a leading Conservative of pronounced political union sentiments, and a Conservative loyalist.

The chances are strong in favor of the An-It is the first struggle of the kind in Can-ada and the result of the election Monday will be watched with interest in both counCHOOSE YOUR HUSBAND!

And Thereby Ascertain Whether or No Marriage Is a Failure in An Early Morning Blaze That Excited the Your Case.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, JANUARY 5, 1889.

This Version of THE EVENING WORLD'S Unique Puzzle is Intended for the Edification of the Gentler Sex. It is a Little More Difficult than the Other Version, but yet a Degree Simpler than Matrimony Itself. Pick out Your Number, Thread the Maze and Learn Your Fate!

ADDICKS IS OUT FOR THE SENATE.

He Would Like to Succeed Saulsbury, of Delaware-So Would Others.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] . Boston, Jan. 5. - The political sensation in candidacy of J. Edwin Addicks as a successor | citement has only just begun. of Eli Saulsbury in the United States Senate has a special interest for Beston from the fact that Mr. Addicks is the President of the Bay State Gas Company and makes his Win-

Bay State Gas Company and makes his Winter residence here with his family.

The first news from Delaware was received with some incredulity here in political and financial circles, especially as it was generally supposed that his residence was in Philadelphia if he had not concluded to make Boston his permanent home. Mr. Addicks himself, however, quickly dispelled all doubts in the case last evening.

To a representative of The Evening World who called on him at the Tudor he said frankly said frankly:

'Yes, it is true that I am a candidate as stated. I have a country residence at Claymont and I returned to Denaware last November to yote for Gen. Harrison. I am a native of Pennsylvania and resided in native of gennsylvana and resided in Philadelphia for many years, but some eleven years ago 1 sold my residence there and bought a country house at Claymont, which is only about twenty miles distant, where my family have since passed their summers. A couple of years ago we came to Boston to spend the Winter on account of my gas interests here, but I am still a citizen of Delaware."

At the Grand Hotel are Charles Thompson, ir., of Washington; George A. Valentine, of Boston; Robert S. Slozm, son of Senator Sloan, of Oswego, and Licut, Charles L. Phillips, U.

Joseph Taylor, of Detroit: R. Brandreth, of Sing Sing; H. M. Boies, of Scranton, and D. Herbert Hostetter, of Pittsburg, are registered at the Gilsey House.

at the Gilsey House.

E. W. Myers, of Washington, and Frank Mc-Leod, of Chicago, are among recent arrivals at the Sturtevant House. Promine at the Brunswick are W. H. Trego, of Baltimore: B. Rosamond, of Montreal, and J. L. Walker, of Detroit.

J. A. Butler, of Buffale; N. W. Eells, of Mid-dleburg, Vt., and Mcl'herson Kenneday, of Lawrence, L. I., are at the St. James. Conspicuous at the Hoffman House are J. Morris Meredith, of Boston; S. Elsner, of Chicago; J. Buford Deudrick, of Keutucky; Irving M. Scott, of San Francisco, and R. B. Bradford, of Washington. The Albemarie guests include C. Beausolen, of Montreal; R. H. McBride, of Mitchell, Dak.; C. B. Choat, of Detroit, and R. G. Ogden, of Pittsburg.

J. M. Thurston, of Omaha; S. J. Ritchie, of Akron. O. F. S. Cone. of Boston, and Mr. James G. Blaine's two youngest daughters are at the Fifth Avenue.

Registered at the Bartholdi are C. H. Hunt, of Chicago; B. F. Stone, of San Francisco, and S. W. White, of Buffalo.

For Ladies in Delicate Health, The Dog's Head Brand of GULKHESS'S STOUT. ... THE UNIVERSITY MEDICAL MUSS.

Dental Students Claim They Were Persecuted for Allegiance to Weisse.

Peace and quietness once more reign supreme in the University Medical College, but He Says a Fight Shall Be Arranged Dela sare caused by the announcement of the | in the New York College of Dentistry the ex-The resolutions drawn up by the denta students announcing their withdrawal in a body from the University have not yet been sent to Dean Pardee, but they may be sent o-day. Eight of the nincty-one matriculates have not as yet affixed their signatures to the reso-lutions, they having been out of the city since the holidays. They are expected to sign when they return. Some fears are expressed that the Univer sity Faculty may anticipate the premeditated resignations by expelling the entire crowd before the resolutions are presented. "The notice forbidding our attendance at the anatomical lectures was a gratuitous in-

'said a dental student to an Evening World reporter.

'Very few of us had been in the habit of Very few of us had been in the habit of attending the lectures at all, as such a course would keep us from dental lectures at our own college or from attending to our pa-tients. Nevertheless it was assorted some time ago that the dental students made more noise and dirt than all the other students put

The resolutions will be presented to the dentil faculty before being sent to Dean Pardee, not only as a matter of courtesy, but as proof that the names are genuine signatures of matriculates.

BASEBALL BREVITIES.

Fuller will cover short for St. Louis, Will Danny Richardson sign to-day?

Jim Hart hears from an "authoritative onree" that Morrill will play first base and namage the Boston team next season. Come. President Byrne, aren't you tall enough knock off that chip?

to knock off that chip?

Harry Wright wants to know if President Day is going to pick all the plums from the schedule pudding.

Matt Kilroy, pitcher of the Baltimore Club, and his seven brothers, will play a game of basicial with a picked team of uptown professionals in the main building on the State Fair Grounds in Philadelphia to-day.

News from Khartonm Withheld. (BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.)

ties there have received additional and later news from Khartonin; but for some reason, probably connected with the situation at Sua-ain, they decline to make the information pub-A similar reticence is maintained at the War and Foreign offices here.

Bowery Smoke Filled Pat's Saloon Long Before They Quenched the Flames.

at 1 o'clock this morning. Fire was burning in the upper part of No. 131, the building in which "Boodle" Alderman Pat Farley has his handsome art gallery, which is alleged to have been fitted up out of the "sonp" which he is charged with receiving in connection

Philadelphia brick, and from the outside has Bradford, who leased each floor to manufacturers.

flammable material. The second floor was oc- the walls and the inmates and attendants are cupied by A. Lehman & Co., commission brokers in fancy notions and manufacturers

The third and fourth floors were tenanted by Louis Meyer, a manufacturer of gilt main building. moulding and picture frames. These floors were stocked with light wood, fancy paper and paint and varnish necessary in the manufacture of these articles.

eigars on the top floor.

Last night Farley's saloon was crowded as usual. Shortly after midnight, one of those who were drinking, scented fire. Farley examined his premises and found everything all right. The smoke began to the cken and another search was made.

About 12 35 a waiter from Henser's restaurant, adjoining, came in and said his place was full of smoke. Farley then went over the behing on the head several times and thought a struck him on the head several times and the same of the behing of the behing the company.

all right. The smoke began to theken and another search was made.

About 12 35 a waiter from Henser's restaurant, adjoining, came in and said his place was full of smoke. Farley then went over the premises and the waiter returned, only to go back to Farley and arouse him to make a more careful examination.

About this time Policeman Scryver, of the Eldridge street station, was walking along Grand street, when his attention was called to smoke which was coming over the buildings in Grand street.

He crossed and then saw the smoke escaping from the rear windows of the Bowery

He crossed and then saw the smoke escaping from the rear windows of the Bowery building.

He ran to the corner of Hester street and the Bowery and sent in an alarm. As soon as the firemen arrived they made their wainto the smouldering building, and upon discovering the extent of the fire sounded a second alarm.

The Insurance Patrol, which had arrived in the mean time, went to work to save what they could. The first thing they did was to cover up the ex-Alderman's (Farley's) bar and furniture. Farley has a pull yet, by the way.

When the firemen get upstairs they found and furniture. Farley has a pull yet, by the way.

When the firemen get upstairs they found many obstacles in their way. The inors were divided up by partitions and were packed with stock.

They judged that the fire had started from a stove on the fourth floor. At that time it had eaten along the floor, up and down the stairs, and the whole building, with the exception of the two lower floors, was a smouldering and smoking mass.

They succeeded in getting past the guard, and rushed to the pickets, were soon endeavoring to several show of the window of the building, with the exception of the two lower floors, was a smouldering and smoking mass.

They succeeded in getting past the guard, mad rushed to the picket fence separating them from the south wail, and tearing off several pickets, were soon endeavoring to several pickets, were soon endeavoring to several show of the window of the building was a smouldering and smoking mass.

Guard Sam Selbs rushed to the assistance of Stebbins, and was joined by Fireman Carpenter and Gardner, the gate attendant. The guard fired several shots over the convicts' heads into the air and frightend O'Brien, Hanson, Smith and Donahue into surrender, which be baze was in progress a huge stone drouped from the roof of an extension of Haueser's restaurant, next door, and tore away a hole a foot smare. The firemen left at 4.39 o'clock. Farley stayed around his saloon motil a late hour the worning to the surrendered and rushed to the picket fence separating them from the south wail, and rushed to the picket fence separating them from the south wail, and rushed to the picket fence separating them from the south wail, and rushed to the picket fence separating them from the south wail, and rushed to the picket fence separating them from the south wail, and rushed to the picket fence seems like in firm.

Attendant Kelly had stayed around his saloon until a late hour the left leg, which cooled him down, and he surrendered.

His cellar, which was stocked with liquors, and Welch's wound was dressed by Drs. Mac-

The trains on the Elevated Railroad were delayed about an hour and a half and the surface roads were stopped for over three

The losses are estimated as follows: I. Levy, manufacturer of eigers, $3,000: Louis Meyer, picture frames, $8,000. A. Lehman, notions and car heaters, $3,500. Saloon-keeper Farley's loss is estimated by the police at $500, but owing to the efficient work of the insurance men, who probably realized that the ex-Alderman had a "puil," everything in the saloon that was damaged can be replaced for $250.

and Her Companion.

Kilrain and His Party Expected to Be Promptly on Hand.

at Toronto.

If There Isn't.

The telegram received from Boston and printed in a morning paper, stating that John L. sullivan bad decided not to go to Toronto Monday to meet Jake Kilrain and his repreentatives on account of the arrangements or his benefit needing his personal attenion, caused a surprise in this town to-day.

If Sullivan had decided to remain in Boston, however, he changed his mind, for this morning Arthur T. Lumley received a telegram from him saying he would leave Boston for Toronto.

To discuss to decide the remain in Boston for Toronto.

At the Essex Market Police Court this morning the fellow described himself as Joseph Goldstein, aged twenty-seven, of 240 First avenue. He was held by Justice Patterson in $1,000 bail for trial. together.

'Now, as it is not an easy task to pick out a few dental students from the large crowd of physicians and surgeons, such a charge is an absurdity. Many other petty charges were made against us recently, which showed that we were being persecuted for our allegiance to Prof. Weisse."

this morning Arthur T. Lumiey received a telegram from him saying he would leave Boston for Toronto to-night and be on hand at the Rossin House Monelay morning at 11 o'clock, the hour stipulated by the Kilrain party. Jack Barnitt, Sullivan's trainer, will co to Toronto with John, and there they will be joined by Charley Johnson, of Brooklyn, Sullivan's backer, and a representative of the Idustrated News, Who will leave this city to morrow, W. E. Harling, Richard K. Fox's sporting editor, is in Budalo with Kilrain and Mitch-cil, and these men will go to Toronto either to night or to-morrow morning. The Sullivan party think Kilrain does busi-

The Suthwar party man they suppose they have either got to put up with it, or let the great match fall through.

Suffixen no doubt would like to bave had the date of meeting fixed a few days later than it is, to give him an opportunity to have his benefit arranged, but he has thrown everything aside and will attend to making the match.

Sullivan's sentiments are expressed in a match is not made.
In the same letter Sullivau says:

Loxpon, Jan. 5. - A despatch from Cairo says In the same letter sunival says:

I see by the papers that McAuliffe fared badly in his contest with Jackson. Jackson must be a good man, but he must not crow too loud, as he has not mot a clever man yet in this country. I see he says in one of his interviews that the fighters who live on this side of the water do not required. He might think differently one of these days. t has become known that the military authori-

FIRE AT EX-ALD. FARLEY'S.

HIS BEAUTIFUL ART GALLERY DAMAGED BY WATER.

Before the Fire Was Discovered-The Firemen Had to Do a Lot of Chopping There was hurry and scurry on the Bowery with the Broadway Railroad affair. The building is a five-story structure of The entire place was filled with highly in-

of a patent car heater.

L. Levy manufactured cheap grades of Last night Farley's saloon was crowded as ours. The losses are estimated as follows: L. but a large amount of victousness.

Or at Least It Won't Be His Fault replaced for $250. GIRLS CATCH A HIGHWAYMAN. Exploit of a Detective's Plucky Daughter

> Annie, the eighteen-year-old daughter of Detective Sullivan, of the Delancey street station, is employed in Lichtenstein's store in Grand street, and while on her way to her home, 276 Seventh street, last night, with Annie Hook, who is also en ployed in the store, the two girls were approached by a man, who seized the purse, containing a small amount, which Miss Sullivan held in her and. The two young women ran after him, over-sek him and held him until the arrival of a

A YOUNG MAN'S SUICIDE.

William Ronchman Stabs Himself with a Pair of Scissors. William Reachioan committed suicide at years of age.

His place of residence was at 2287 Eighth avenue.

ton tried to shoot him. After he got up some one fired a shot which hit Raston.

A general fusillade followed, but the crowd.

The police and the Coroner were promptly notified of the affair.

A central fusilisde followed, but the content of the affair. Reich Still Lives in Hope.

Deputy Sheriffs Kauffmanp and Burke relieved Deputy Sheriffs Delmar and Carraher on death autch over Reich, the condemned wife-murrer, at the Tombs this morning. Reich passed other good hight. He refuses to believe that other good biglit. He refuses to be may not yet have his sentence commuted. roner Levy called on him yesterday and gave ne encouragement.

"I know 'tis a sin to, But I'm bent on the notion: I'll throw myself into 'The deep, briny occan," nental exclamation of many a sufferer s the mental excismation of many a surerer from headache, includestion, constipation, torpid iver, &c. The use of Dr. Pience's Pleasant Prilets, however, would transform these un-fortunates and cause them to sing— But my spirit shall wander Through gay coral bowers, And frisk with the mermaids, It shall, by the powers! **

CLEVER LUNATICS.

How They Fought for Liberty in Auburn's Asylum.

Desperate Conflict Between Insane Criminals and the Guards.

Big Welch Was Not Subdued Until Shot in the Leg.

INDUCTAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. 1

Aunuan, N. Y., Jan. 5. - A desperate ata solid appearance. It is owned by William | tempt to escape was made by five inmates of the Criminal Insane Asylum at 5.30 o'clock vesterday afternoon.

It is at that hour when the guards come off allowed to neceive their supper. One of the guards at this time patrols the grounds about the building, and the other is stationed at the rear basement door of the The trouble began in Ward 7, in which are confined the most dangerous and vicious criminals. There are four attendants allotted to this ward, but owing to the sickness of one only three were on duty, two of whom had gone to supper, leaving William Kelly alone in charge at that time.

thrust him into the bathroom, locking the They then unfastened the door leading into They then untastened the door leading into the corridor and passed out, locking it after them. They passed down the stairs into the basement and through several halls until they reached the rear basement door of the main building, which they opened and rushed out suddenly on the goard, Stebbins, who was stationed at that point.

Donald and Semple.

But for the coolness and excellent judgment of the guards the desperate men would have escaped.

Welch was sent to the Auburn Prison for assault for nine years and six months, and is regarded by the officers of the prison as one of the most desperate and vicious convicts in Saloon- the State. He was received at the insane a-ylum on Dec. 15 for the purpose of 'nvestigating his sanity. He has received close attention, but thus far has revealed no evidence of 'insanity

There are a large number of scars on his head which he has received from encounters with officers in other prisons.

RIOT OF THE NEWCASTLE MINERS. William Raston, a Miners' Union Mang Killed Cause of the Trouble.

SEATTLE, W. T., Jan. 5. - William Raston, a member of the Miners' Union, was killed in the riot which took place between the Newcastle miners yesterday. The difficulty first arose over a man named

Boyle, who went to work on a breast, and

INDECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I

whom the Knights of Labor claimed had no Wednesday morning they refused to go to work and posted notices saying there would be no more work in the Newcastle mine. The members of the Miners' Union, however, who greatly outnumbered the Knights, continued at work, and Thursday night a large force of Knights came over from Gil-man and McAllister for the purpose of clean-inc out the camp.

They marched through Newcastle, went up to the mine and assaulted and terribly beat a number of miners, including Buchanan, the outside foreman, and then returned on the William Reachman committed suicide at 254 West One Hundred and Twenty-second street, at about 8 o'clock this morning, by stabbing himself with a pair of seissors.

A man named Jones rushed out of his house tabbing hunself with a pair of scissors.

A man named Jones rushed out of his house lie was a young man, being but twenty-one with a gun. He was knocked down and Ras.

> Heavy Rains To-Day: Clearing Sunday. WASHINGTON, Jan. 5, -Weather indications:

erly winds.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
ELIZABETH, N. J., Jan. 5.—The semi-annual neeting of the State Dental Society of New Jersey takes place this afternoon at New Brunswick. All the officers and delegates are to be entertained, after the meeting, at a dinner given by Dr. Huli, President of the organization.

New Jersey Dentists Will Dine.